

Terms of Service

Easy Entry Online LLC (Easy Entry, we) and the Client (you) agree to be bound by these Terms of Service.

Easy Entry will host the service with a provider having an excellent reliability rating and will arrange for daily backup of all data and images.

Easy Entry makes no warranty that the service will meet your requirements, will be uninterrupted, timely, secure, or error-free.

Easy Entry expressly disclaims all warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, including, but not limited to the implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for purpose and non-infringement.

Using Easy Entry will require each user, other than viewers of the public galleries, to open an account including a password. Each account holder is told they are entirely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of their password. You agree to notify Easy Entry immediately of any unauthorized use of your password, or any other breach of security, and for informing your personnel of their responsibility in this regard. You or your personnel may not use anyone else's password at any time without the express permission and consent of the holder of that password. We cannot and will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to comply with these obligations.

The service provides you with an extraordinary level of flexibility and control. You have sole responsibility for the managerial and administrative entries that you control and for any content uploaded by you, or the lack thereof.

All other data, including text and images, entered or uploaded using the service are the sole responsibility of the person entering or uploading the data. You are responsible for deciding whether accepted images are publicly displayed in the online galleries available to you. We will have no responsibility for any content entered or uploaded by users that is incorrect, offensive or indecent.

You are solely responsible for any use of data downloaded by you using the download features of the service.

Easy Entry reserves the right to delete any content if we are legally required to do so. We also reserve the right to delete any content that appears to result from abuse, illegal use or hacking of the service; if the content appears to be related to your account, an attempt will first be made to contact you.

Easy Entry reserves the sole right to make changes in this agreement at any time after notifying you by email. All of your events created prior to the notification date and scheduled to open for entry within 90 days of that date will be allowed to complete under the terms that applied prior to the change.
